

WILL OF COL. HAY
CLEARED FOR PROBATE
Document Is Forceful and Characteristic of Man.

GIVES ALL TO WIFE
Gives List of Many Who Are Indebted to Him, Among Whom Is Marie Wainwright.

"Experts and jury to the contrary notwithstanding, this is my last will, revoking all others," is the forceful and characteristic statement with which the late Edwin B. Hay began his last testament, filed for probate today. After disposing of his estate as a whole Mr. Hay gives a partial list of the names of persons and amounts due him by them. Among these is named Marie Wainwright, whom he says, is indebted to him in the sum of $285, which amount is secured by a brooch. He also names George Wilson, minstrel, as his debtor in the sum of $500. This loan is secured by a pin. He also lists other personal debts due him by various persons aggregating $13,780. Continuing his will Mr. Hay says:

All His Estate to Wife.
"I give, bequeath, and devise all my estate, real and personal, and mixed to my wife, Florence B. Hay, her heirs and assigns forever.
"Contemplating crossing the deep, should both my wife and myself be lost at sea, then the executor will be empowered to have the grandfather, William Hay, appointed guardian of our children, Paul, Jr., and Ned, Jr., and they will be the beneficiaries, share and share alike in any event, will or no will, then to dispose of the real estate and invest the proceeds for their benefit.
"No. 1535 P street has an incumbrance of $2,000 note only, which has been reduced about $1,400, of which $500 is due Emma M. Dennis and $900 Rose, Annie, and Willie Hilton, for whom I am trustee. Note in Washington Loan and Trust safe, E. H. Chamberlain, treasurer Columbia Commandery, No. 2, in charge.

Home for Father and Mother.
"1727 Q street northwest, 4,000 feet, improved by frame cottage, on this $3,000 incumbrance, two $1,500 notes, interest paid, held by Emma S. Dennis, Cottage City, Mass. It is my wish that this shall be held by my mother and father during their lives or pleasure, provided they pay the beneficiaries, share and share alike in any event, will or no will, then to dispose of the real estate and invest the proceeds for their benefit.
"No. 1535 P street has an incumbrance of $2,000 note only, which has been reduced about $1,400, of which $500 is due Emma M. Dennis and $900 Rose, Annie, and Willie Hilton, for whom I am trustee. Note in Washington Loan and Trust safe, E. H. Chamberlain, treasurer Columbia Commandery, No. 2, in charge.

Injured in Runaway
Returning From Funeral
Edward G. Rowzee Narrowly Escapes Death Just After Leaving Graveside of Dead Brother.

Returning from the burial of his brother in Rock Creek Cemetery Edward G. Rowzee, a well-known tobacco dealer of this city, was the victim of an accident about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon which almost cost him his life, and intensified the sorrow of a home which had already been made desolate by the death of a loved one.
After the burial of his brother, Reuben Rowzee, friends and relatives occupying several carriages were on their way back to the city. Mr. Rowzee was driving a spirited animal attached to a two-seated rig, and was accompanied by three women, members of the family. Mr. Rowzee was driving along Brightwood avenue at medium pace, when suddenly and without any warning to the party in the vehicle, the horse became frightened at some obstruction along the roadway near New Hampshire avenue, and dashed wildly off into the gutter, lunging with great force into a trolley pole.
The carriage was overturned and smashed beyond recognition, and both

Mr. Rowzee and the ladies were fastened for some time beneath the demolished vehicle, screaming for help. Mr. Rowzee's right leg was broken and he sustained other serious internal injuries. Mrs. Julia Rowzee, the widow of Reuben Rowzee, living at 324 Fifteenth street northwest was also badly injured. The other members of the party escaped with slight bruises. The horse happily stood still after the carriage had been smashed until his master had been taken from the wreck, and probably saved from death the lives of all members of the party. Mr. Rowzee was hurriedly taken to his home, where he is now lying in a critical condition.

COTTON MARKET STEADY
ON ACTIVE DEALINGS

NEW YORK, June 27.—Continued fine weather through the cotton belt was offset this morning by moderate activity among local and southern shorts. The weather map showed less rain in Texas. The market was fairly active and about steady.

EXONERATED BY
SECRETARY OF NAVY
No Blame Attached to Captains of Battleships in Collision.

Rear Admiral Evans and the captains of the battleships of the Atlantic fleet that were run aground in a general collision in New York harbor January 7 last, were exonerated of blame by a court of inquiry, with modification by Rear Admiral Evans and endorsement by Secretary Bonaparte. Secretary Bonaparte's decision is made after careful consideration, he having had the case in his hands four months, and no court-martial of any of the officers will be held, as no one was really guilty of incompetence.
Secretary Bonaparte, in approving this verdict says that he "finds no reason for censure of either commanding officer, except as regards the grounding of the Kentucky, and this may have been caused by a slight error on the part of the commanding officer."

San Francisco should not resent the presence of sightseers. They do not gloat over the misfortune of the stricken town, but to sorrow for her and to pity her. We all loved the place—the whole world loved it. And the sorrow the world gave was the proof of its love.—Los Angeles Times.

AUTOMOBILE TRIPS
FOR POOR OF CITY
Summer Outings Committee Needs More Machines for Crowds.

The children and mothers who have never ridden in an automobile and are unable even to afford car rides into the country are now looking forward with a good deal of interest and anticipation to the most novel form of outing excursion.

The newspaper notice of June 15 asking that owners of automobiles loan machines and drivers for the whole or part of the day, July 6, has attracted some notice and already a few responses have been received at the headquarters of the summer outings committee in the Ouray Building. It is important, however, that a far larger number of these machines be secured for that day as already the babies, boys, girls, and mothers who greatly need an outing trip far exceed in number the accommodations provided. Parties will be ready to leave the central office of the Associated Charities, 311 G street northwest, at 9 a. m. and 2 p. m.
Notices concerning this may be sent to the secretary of the committee, Wallace Hatch, Ouray Building.

STOCK MARKET
AT A STANDSTILL
Mergenthaler Alone Saved Day From an Utter Lack of Attention.

The business of today on the local stock board can be related in a very few words. In fact the only thing that can be said is that the social feature of the session was its redeeming quality. The members met, exchanged the compliments of the day and returned to their offices, while the record shows that the spirit of business was consistently lacking. This is best shown by the fact that the total of the transactions was one bond and 170 shares of stock, of which Mergenthaler comprised the major part.

President Hibbs made strenuous efforts to do business in Gas stock, but could awaken no interest. Green Copper was up a fraction, while Mitchell dropped away to 4 1/2 bid, with offerings at 4 1/4.
In all other cases prices remained practically stationary and the noticeable lack of orders on either side showed plainly that the public had lost interest and the professionals were not disposed to tempt fate.
